

HOTEL RESERVATION FORM

Hotel reservations in Punta Arenas are not included in any ALE experiences or packages. All hotel charges must be paid by you, your travel agent, or your guide company. ALE shall not, under any circumstances, be liable for any hotel expenses incurred, even in the event of a weather delay.

When choosing a hotel, please consult our recommended Hotel List and the Punta Arenas Map which shows the proximity of each hotel to ALE's office. If you select an accommodation that is not on our list, please ensure it is still within the black boundary box identified on Page 1 of the map. If you elect to stay outside of this area, or in an Airbnb, you may be required to organize your own transportation to a point within this serviceable area in order to check-in for your flight, drop-off your checked luggage, and to catch ALE's airport shuttles for the Antarctic flights.

We strongly recommend making hotel reservations in advance for at least 2 post-trip hotel nights. While flight delays do occur, it is the busy season in Punta Arenas and hotels are often booked to capacity. Making post-trip reservations in advance is the only way to guarantee space in a specific hotel upon your return from Antarctica.

Note: Check-in is at 3:00pm, and few hotels offer early check-in options. If you arrive in the early morning you should make a reservation for the night prior if you want access to your room.

BOOKING INFORMATION

- OPTION 1: I would like ALE to make these reservations on my behalf.
- OPTION 2: These reservations have already been made.

WEATHER DELAY

ALE is required to ensure all guests have accommodation for the night of their return flight from Antarctica. Given the potential for weather delays and the reality that flight decisions can happen at any time, it is most efficient to authorize ALE to make changes to your post-Antarctica hotel reservation on your behalf. While we cannot guarantee we'll be able to keep you in the same hotel if they are at capacity, we will do our best to ensure you stay in the same or equivalent hotel. Please be aware that if a reservation is canceled due to a weather delay, you may be charged for unused hotel nights depending on the hotel's cancellation policy.

- I give ALE permission to alter my existing hotel reservations or make new reservations on my behalf. I agree to pay for this reservation even if I choose not to use the room, or if weather prevents me from using the reservation.
